

ADVANCED COMMUNICATION SKILLS COURSE

- A course for the modern breast surgeon aiming to provide techniques in dealing with challenging clinical scenarios and improving confidence and ability in engaging patients in understanding risk of their disease and surgery.
- This heavily subsidised course is a 1.5-day course comprised of a variety of lectures, exercises, and video footage depicting communication with breast cancer patients.
- Delegates will work through clinical scenarios in both large and small teaching groups with feedback from an experienced faculty.

28-29TH OF SEPTEMBER

PRICE

From £250

REGISTRATION

<https://associationofbreastsurgery.org.uk>

VENUE

Royal Society of Medicine, Wimpole St
London, W1G 0AE

ADVANCED COMMUNICATION SKILLS COURSE

SEPT
2023

ROYAL SOCIETY OF MEDICINE
LONDON

Provisional Programme

Thursday, 28th of September

12.45 -
13.00

Registration

13.00 -
17.45

Dealing with difficult patient characteristics

Refreshments provided

Uncertainties, anxieties and patient complexities

Breaking bad news & challenging cases

Friday, 29th of September

9 - 17.00

Governance and best practice - how to protect patients and yourself!

Lunch and refreshments

Handling prognosis

Talking about risks and uncertainties in Genetic Testing