

13th London Surgical Symposium & 72nd Simpson Smith Lecture and Awards “Trials in Surgery”

16 October 2019

At the Ondaatje Theatre of the Royal Geographical Society,
1 Kensington Gore, London, SW7 2AR

Photo credit: Graham Oliver, Imperial College

LSS
LONDON SURGICAL
SYMPOSIUM

Highlights include: The debate - “Is big data the death of randomised controlled trials in surgery?” - Prof. van Berge Henegouwen/Prof. Jane Blazeby ◊ Simpson Smith Memorial Lecture given by Sir David Haslam ◊ Hugh Dudley Memorial Lecture given by Prof. Karim Brohi ◊ NIHR Imperial BRC presentations

Visit our website www.londonsurgery.org to register for your free day ticket! ◊ Apply for the Simpson Smith Travel Award 2019 ◊ Submit an abstract for the plenary and poster sessions ◊ Book a place at our evening meal subsidised to £35 a head